

Get SEEP or CESCL Certified in Erosion Control!

2019 Classes

SEEP Basic Classes:

Coeur d'Alene	April 2-3
Sandpoint	April 23-24
Kellogg	May 7-8

SEEP Level II Classes:

Coeur d'Alene	March 20
Sandpoint	April 11

NEW! CESCL Class:

Coeur d'Alene	April 30-May 1
---------------	----------------

SEEP Basic Class:

- Hands-on training in erosion control
- Full day classroom session and half day field session
- Cost: $250
- Topics covered: Site Planning, Water Quality, Regulations, and BMPs

SEEP Level II Class:

- Renew your 3-year SEEP certification
- One day classroom session
- Cost: $150
- Topics covered: Stormwater and Low Impact Development BMPs

Certified Erosion & Sediment Control Lead (CESCL) Class:

- Meets Washington Construction Stormwater General Permit requirements
- Cost: $400
- Topics covered: Washington regulations, erosion and sediment control practices, monitoring, reporting, and more
- Certification valid for three years

Register Now!

www.PanhandleSEEP.org